PRESENTATION(S)

THE INLAND EMPIRE MASTER PLAN FOR AGING

Presented by Inland Coalition on Aging Board Chair, Dr. Ben Jauregui.

Commissioner Kelley asked when and the location of the meetings.

Dr. Jauregui stated they meet virtually every 3rd Tuesday of each month. Meetings can be looked up at Inlandaging.org.

Commissioner Kelley asked what kind of help are they looking for.

Dr. Jauregui stated they are looking for organizations that can provide assistance for their committees.

Commissioner Clarke asked if they have worked with the Blue Zones project.

Dr. Jauregui stated that everyone is invited, and he can reach out to them.

Commissioner Clarke asked if they counted the LGBTQ+ Community separate from the different Ethnic groups in order not to get duplication.

Dr. Jauregui stated each group had their own separate Stakeholders meetings.

Commissioner Moti stated there will be a hearing at the City Council meeting on Tuesday, May 20, regarding converting units into studio apartments to house the aging population and asked if anyone from the Inland Coalition could support and speak for the aging 1:00 p.m. at City Hall.

Dr. Jauregui stated he could check with all the collaborative partners to see if anyone could be available to come support and speak.

Commissioner Moti asked what the expectations were on recent possible cuts to social programs.

Dr. Jauregui stated it is a difficult time and stated to keep fighting for the services that our community needs.

Commissioner Dove wanted to confirm if the Master Plan report will be out in June, and where to find it.

Dr. Jauregui stated it will be located on the website in June.
