

Planning Commission

2025 Work Plan

Mission

To realize Riverside's vision for its future, development, growth and preservation through the Planning Commission's review and recommendation on changes to the physical development of the City. The Planning Commission is committed to planning and design that results in a livable, high-quality of place – where people can live, work and play.

The Riverside Municipal Code provides the following Powers, Duties and Functions for the Planning Commission:

Article VIII. – Appointive Boards & Commissions, Section 806

- a. After a public hearing thereon, recommend to the City Council the adoption, amendment or repeal of the General Plan, or any part thereof, for the physical development of the City.
- b. Exercise such control over land subdivisions as is granted to it by the City Council.
- c. Make recommendations concerning proposed infrastructure improvements and redevelopment activities in support of planned land uses.
- d. Exercise such functions with respect to zoning and land use as may be prescribed by ordinance, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Charter.
- e. Review all other land use issues as may be prescribed by ordinance, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Charter.
