ANALYSIS OF IMPEDIMENTS TO FAIR HOUSING (AI)

- Study of actions, omissions, or decisions that restrict housing choices or the availability of housing choices or decisions that have the effect of restricting choice or availability.
- Includes a community profile of demographics, household characteristics, income, housing, accessibility to facilities/jobs/housing. It evaluates Fair Housing complaints, violations and lawsuits, as well as trends and patterns of impediments.
- The resulting study culminates in a set of actions and recommendations to be taken over the following five-year period.
- HUD requires that this document must be approved as a stand-alone document.
