What is “Age-Friendly”?

What's good for an 80-year-old is good for an 8-year-old!

Why is “Age-Friendly” Important?

- By 2060, nearly 1 in 4 people in the United States will be at least 65 years old.
- Knowing this turning point is on the horizon is an opportunity.
- For the last seven decades, the dominant development paradigm has been one primarily focused on meeting the perceived needs of families with children.

Opportunities for Growth

AARP Study: Two-thirds (67%) of all adults — and 79% of those 50-plus — want to stay in their current communities. Adults primarily value communities that foster good health, promote street safety, and provide good opportunities for community engagement and social interaction.

Take a moment to think about your community!

Can you age in place? Can your community support its growing aging population?

The AARP Network of Age-Friendly States & Communities (NAFSC)

Membership in the network:

- Serves as an organizing structure for making community improvements
- Fosters partnerships among community groups and local stakeholders
- Provides resources for identifying and assessing community needs
- Enables community improvements that benefit people of all ages

Dear Ms. Clem,

On behalf of the City of San José, I am submitting this letter of commitment to the World Health Organization (WHO) to become an Age-Friendly Community as an Age-Friendly Community. San José has a strong commitment to serving the various needs of its community and an Age-Friendly City will support a healthy and vibrant community for all ages.

Located in Silicon Valley, San José is the 10th largest city in the country with a diverse population. Yet our over-65 population in San José is the most rapidly growing age demographic, and by committing to Age-Friendly City goals, we will ensure that older adults in our community receive respect, dignity, and involvement in all aspects of our City's future.

San José has built a collaborative partnership with the County of Santa Clara by sharing resources and coordinating activities to move the Age-Friendly Initiative forward in this region. We have formed an Age-Friendly task force comprised primarily of older adults from the community that are committed to:

- Conducting a baseline community assessment on the needs of older adults.
- Establishing a three-year action plan to address the identified needs.
- Developing tools to measure the progress of the action plan.

We look forward to working with WHO as we create an Age-Friendly City that provides its residents with the tools and resources they need to remain healthy and active throughout their life.

Sincerely,

Sam Liccardo
Mayor

Community Assessment

1. An asset inventory
2. A comprehensive community profile
3. A community survey
4. Analyze all the data you've gathered to create a blueprint for age-friendly action in your community

Community Assessment: Asset Inventory

The asset inventory is a compilation of relevant age-friendly activities, services and experts already available in your community.

Community Assessment: Community Profile

The community profile describes the demographics of your community.

Community Assessment: Community Survey

A survey to hear directly from your community members about their needs and wants.

Community Assessment: Listening Sessions

Listening sessions augment the survey and are another way to directly engage with your community and provide a “face” to the age-friendly initiative.
