ISSUE:

Receive and file an article from The Inquirer Daily News Philly.com titled "Millennials rely on the Free Library for more than books."

RECOMMENDATION:

That the Board of Library Trustees receive and file an article from The Inquirer Daily News Philly.com titled "Millennials rely on the Free Library for more than books."

BACKGROUND:

An article from The Inquirer Daily News Philly.com dated January 28, 2019, titled "Millennials rely on the Free Library for more than books" written by TyLisa C. Johnson is attached.

DISCUSSION:

The attached article emphasizes the millennials view of free libraries as a place to access programs, computers and free Wi-Fi. Libraries also provide opportunities for socializing and a place for community groups to meet. To meet these changing needs, library spaces are being reimagined. Additional details can be found in the attached article.
