PRESENTATION

4. UPDATE ON THE COMPREHENSIVE PARK MASTER PLAN AND THE DEPARTMENT'S VISION FOR 2030

Director Cruz invited Principal Park Planner McDaniel to present the PowerPoint.

Principal Park Planner McDaniel presented the PowerPoint, informed the Commission that community input will be requested. Principal Park Planner McDaniel also informed the Commission that the Community Development Department is undergoing the City Wide General Master Plan so the timing is perfect for the Department's update.

Director Cruz emphasized on the importance of community input because this will be the time to improve the City's Park system.

Commissioner Cardullo asked how many consultants applied for the job.

Principal Park Planner McDaniel confirmed five companies applied, three were interviewed, and one company had the majority vote from the panel. An agreement still has to be made and accepted before their name can be released.

Commissioner Negron asked that all presentations and flyers/brochures/invites be both in English and Spanish; and asked that Commissioners be invited to all meetings.

Director Cruz informed the Commission that consultant is aware of request to have interactive community meetings and to include as much Spanish language as possible.

Commissioner Whatley requested monthly updates at Commission meetings.

Commissioner Elliot asked if the maintenance refurbishment list will go hand-in-hand with the master plan.

Director Cruz mentioned that consultant will help prioritize the list.

Resident Giorgio Cerboni, from Ward 4, requested more soccer fields be added to the City.

Resident Marilyn Whitney, from Ward 7, insisted that all stakeholders be listened to and not just those who make decisions for the City. She focused on keeping families and animals safe.

Resident Theresa Newham, from the Grand neighborhoods, focused on the residents near Ag Park who need to be heard during the master plan update.

Resident Michele Sheehe, from the Greenbelt neighborhoods, expressed her opposition regarding the recommended Golden Star Park site.

Resident Vikki Roberts, Ward 2 resident, shared her opinion about having a senior center in the Eastside of Riverside.

After discussion, a motion was made to accept the report for file.

Motion: Elliot
Second: Cardullo
Ayes: All
