Ekaterrina Orlovie
Age: 36
Occupation: Full-time graphic designer and videographer for Balsa Circle/Artist and illustrator (on her freetime)
Contact: hello@orlovie.com
TikTok and Instagram: @orlovie

Ekaterrina migrated to the United States with her family at a young age from Russia. She's currently breaking the narrative of fitting-in and paving the way for her daughter and future generations to be authentically oneself to be successful. When not at her full-time job, Ekaterrina is primarily a watercolorist. She blends the mediums of digital and watercoloring to fully express her craft, which is watercolor illustration. Among other mediums, she's currently exploring outdoor mural painting and would like to add muralist to her resume. The sense of community at the EastsideArthouse is another fuel of inspiration for Ekaterrina to pursue her passion, as well as the flora and fauna of Southern California has brought more color to her work. "Being part of the arthouse is so beneficial

"PEOPLE ARE UPLIFTING EACH OTHER"

because you can always find things to learn," said Ekaterrina. "People are uplifting each other," she continued, "and if you're not able to do something, you can give it to another person who is able to do it." The community she found at the EastsideArthouse, and the support from her husband, family and friends is a huge blessing. All our love, naturally, staying in a university element that shares similar life lessons through its long age and heritage, and Ekaterrina utilizes that element to inspire her art. Starting the month of March, Ekaterrina will be painting for the month of March. She'll be showcasing her first exhibition at the Artists in Fullerton in early April.

To redefine and elevate the essence of graffiti and street art is one of Jonathan's primary focuses. At a young age, he started his venture with drawing that later led him to handle paint spray cans to canvas his vision wider and visible for all to see. Jonathan refined his skills and explored different art mediums at Norco College. He also worked at the Norco College Art Gallery. Not only did he gain a sense of professionalism, in art, Jonathan also met amazing artists there. He learned through their experiences about navigating their own careers as
