COMMUNICATIONS

ANNUAL REVIEW OF THE CODE OF ETHICS AND CONDUCT

Susan Wilson, Assistant City Attorney, stated that the annual review process for the Code of Ethics is set in the Riverside Municipal Code. It is an annual review process for revisions to the Code of Ethics. All of the boards and commissions are currently reviewing the Code of Ethics. Any comments that are gathered will be sent to the Board of Ethics to be considered at their August meeting. The comments are then presented to a City Council committee for review. Then it goes to the full City Council for final review.

Commissioner Wilder inquired if the Commission's inquiries/clarifications and receiving a timely response to those, is something that can be addressed in the Code of Ethics.

Chair Kirby explained that with regard to a proposal coming before the Commission, he had requested clarification several meetings ahead of time from the City Attorney as to whether he could participate in the discussion. It wasn't until the day of the meeting that he received confirmation. The Chair asked for clarification on how the Commission may receive a response in a more timely manner.

Ms. Wilson stated that she can provide resources regarding the process. She explained that normally their offices receive the requests in writing from the board or commission staff person and the City Attorney's Office will provide a response within two weeks. She can also provide the resource of the Fair Political Practice Commission. She was not familiar with what happened with that particular opinion, but she can describe the current process in place and formalize it in an email to the Commission.

Ms. Kopaskie-Brown stated that if something comes up for the second meeting in July, this item can be placed on that agenda for further discussion.

There were no comments regarding the Code of Ethics, no formal action was taken.

ITEMS FOR FUTURE AGENDAS AND UPDATE FROM CITY PLANNER

Ms. Kopaskie-Brown announced that there were no items for the July 7th meeting.
