DISCUSSION AND ACTION CALENDARItem 6 Architectural Design Services for the new City of Riverside SPC Jesus S. Duran Eastside Library

Library Director Christmas provided an update on the on the selection of a proposed new site and Request for Proposal 1934 for Architectural Design Services for the New City of Riverside SPC Jesus S. Duran Eastside Library.

CannonDesign is working to identify the best location to situate an ideal direction for the entrance of the proposed new facility.

Dates will be forthcoming to have the design firm provide community engagement opportunities on this project for community members to provide input as it relates to how the new library may best meet their needs through space, services and programs

Costs associated with Phase 1 Design Services will be paid with Measure Z funds as approved by City Council on April 19, 2019. Sufficient funds in the amount of $100,000 are available in the Eastside Library Project account 9907409-462050 Measure Z Fund 420.

No action taken.

Item 7 Riverside Public Library Foundation's Literacy Legacy Naming Campaign of Main Library and Rooms

Library Director Christmas informed the Board of Library Trustees of the goal of the Literacy Legacy campaign is to raise up to $10 million to provide funds to the Riverside Public Library public technology replacement, increased materials budget for best sellers and online resources, and other special projects for all Riverside Public Library locations. Funds are intended to augment the Library annual General Fund budget.

As one way to raise these funds, RPLF and Library staff outlined an opportunity for the public to donate funds for the ability to name specific areas after themselves or their company. The pledge forms were included in the agenda packet. Areas to name include the entire building, specific rooms and areas of the Library and book stacks. Additionally, for a lower amount, donors can add their name to a donor wall to be established on a wall near the front entrance of the Library. Susan Toscano, President of RPLF spoke on the 5 year Literacy Legacy Naming Campaign.

This campaign will officially launch in late Fall/early Winter 2021 with a Gala fundraiser, date to be announced.

RPLF has received verbal commitments from donors for at least two spaces including the Carnegie Room ($250,000) and Innovation Center ($750,000).

No action taken.
