

Community Police Review Commission Survey

The Community Police Review Commission (CPRC) values the input of all citizens of the City of Riverside, and tries to improve upon itself based on what we learn from you in this survey, as well as from our dialog with community members and organizations.

- 1) Have you heard of the Community Police Review Commission (CPRC) in the past?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No

- 2) What event in local history prompted the creation of the Community Police Review Commission?
 - a. Tyisha Miller shooting death in 1998, in parking lot near corner of Brockton and Central Avenues in Riverside
 - b. Rodney King beating in 1991
 - c. Neither
 - d. Other

- 3) How did you hear about the CPRC?
 - a. City-sponsored community meeting
 - b. Other meeting (please state which group_____)
 - c. Friends
 - d. Other

- 4) Who or what do you think the CPRC represents or advocates for?
 - a. Riverside Police Department (RPD)
 - b. Citizens of the City of Riverside
 - c. Community's perspective on the citizen complaint and investigative process

- 5) Do you believe that having the CPRC as oversight to the RPD promotes effective, fair, and balanced law enforcement in the city of Riverside?
 - a. Yes – the CPRC promotes fair and balanced law enforcement
 - b. No – the CPRC does not promote fair and balanced law enforcement
 - c. Why or why not?

- 6) Do you believe that the CPRC effectively promotes public trust in RPD by bringing independent findings and recommendations regarding law enforcement policies and practices to the attention of the city government?
 - a. Yes – the CPRC promotes public trust in RPD
 - b. No – the CPRC does not promote public trust in RPD
 - c. Why or why not?

- 7) Are you aware which types of cases are reviewed by the CPRC? (please CHECK with an X all that you believe the CPRC review):
- a. ☐ Officer-involved deaths
 - b. ☐ Personnel complaints against RPD officers
 - c. ☐ Traffic tickets
- 8) Do you believe the Community Police Review Commission is biased toward either RPD, or toward the community and/or any particular community activist group(s)?
- a. Yes
 - b. No
 - c. If yes (CPRC is biased) – please state who or what organization you believe the CPRC is biased toward, and why:

- 9) Do you have any suggestions on how the CPRC can better promote its mission and purpose to the community?
-
-
-
- 10) Have you ever attended a CPRC meeting, and/or had a personal discussion with one or more of the CPRC commissioners about a particular case or community issue? What were your impressions?
-
-
-

For more information, please visit our website at www.riversideca.gov/cprc

If you are a member of a group and would like to schedule a presentation by the CPRC, please call us at (951) 826-5509, or email us at cprc@riversideca.gov