

Bank of America Investing in the City of Riverside: Banking and Activities in 2015

Riverside Nonprofits received financial support from Bank of America Charitable Foundation:

1. Community Connect
2. Fair Housing Council of Riverside
3. Feeding America of Riverside/San Bernardino
4. Fox Theater Foundation
5. Goodwill Industries
6. Habitat for Humanity
7. Housing Opportunity Collaborative of the Inland Empire
8. MicroEnterprise Collaborative of Inland Southern California
9. Path of Life Ministries
10. Riverside Art Museum
11. Riverside Community College District
12. Riverside County Philharmonic
13. Springboard
14. Tri-Tech SBDC
15. United Way of Inland Valleys
16. UCR
17. US Vets
18. Voices for Children: CASA Riverside
19. Riverside Land Conservancy

ALSO supported the following regional organizations benefiting Riverside:

1. Catholic Charities
2. Inland Empire SBDC

3. IE Women's Business Council
4. The Community Foundation
5. Inland Empire Economic Partnership
6. Funders Alliance
7. Boys & Girls Club of Redlands/Riverside

Greater Riverside Chamber participation by BofA employees:

1. Board Member—Al Arguello
2. Finance committee—Hassan Webb
3. Government Relations—David Hahn
4. La Sierra Council—Anna Miramontes
5. Business & Education—Cathy Paredes
6. Keep Riverside Clean & Beautiful—Christine Scarcella

Sponsored the following events in 2015:

1. State of the City event
2. Soroptimist International-Riverside
3. Chamber's 114th Inaugural Celebration
4. Champions of Justice by Fair Housing Council
5. Tri-Tech SBDC Funding the Big Idea
6. RCCD Annual Recognition Gala (Named BofA Outstanding Corporate Partner 2013)
7. Keep Riverside Clean & Beautiful Clean-up weekend
8. Chamber's College & Career – Presenting Sponsor for the last 10 years
9. Latino Network's Christmas Breakfast
10. Riverside Arts Council: Festival of the Arts
11. Greater Riverside Hispanic Chamber's Business without Borders
12. Riverside NAACP Veterans Luncheon
13. Association of Funders Professional annual event
14. Feeding America annual event
15. Chamber's Legislative Summit
16. Inspire Lifeskills
17. Special Olympics

18. Riverside Lunar Event

19. Riverside Walk to End Homelessness

The following BofA employees serve on Boards of the following organizations in Riverside:

1. Al Arguello—Monday Morning Group; MicroEnterprise Collaborative; UCR School of Business Dean's Advisory Council;
2. David Hahn—United Way of the Inland Valleys; Housing Opportunity Collaborative
3. Raul Aballi—Riverside Community College Foundation; Mission Inn Foundation; Riverside Art Museum
4. Clara Vanderpool—Feeding America
5. Patricia Chavez—Habitat for Humanity
6. Patty Pulido—Greater Riverside Hispanic Chamber of Commerce
7. Diane Valenzuela—The Community Foundation
8. Mark Sutton—Riverside Philharmonic
9. Mark Messenger—Tri-Tech SBDC

Volunteers

Bank of America employees logged in more than 12,000 volunteer hours in the Inland Empire; many of which were served in the city of Riverside.

Community Development Lending:

Financing for the March Veterans Village at March Air Reserve Base: 138 units of affordable housing for previously homeless veterans. Bank of America provided $27 million construction loan plus $14 million equity investment.

Banking Presence in the city:

Number of Financial Centers in Riverside: 6

Number of ATMS_locations: 12

Approximate number of BofA employees working in Riverside: 250