

Riverside Fees and Charges Schedule ATTACHMENT 6

The following fees shall be charged for the use of the facilities of the Parks, Recreation and Community Services Department (PRCS); provided, however, no fee shall be charged for Departmental programs, or City functions. Priority for the reservations of the below referenced facilities will be given to residents.

Group I shall mean those organizations whose activities are officially co-sponsored by the PRCS Department and includes public schools (excepting physical education classes) or other educational, community service, faith based, or civic organizations based within the corporate limits of the City of Riverside and possessing a non-profit status as determined by the Internal Revenue Service, provided, however, to be eligible as a Group I, such organization shall not charge a fee for the event and the activity is open to the public. Group II includes Riverside City residents and all other non-profit groups not eligible to be considered as a Group I organization. Group III includes all other entities not eligible to be considered as a Group I or Group II organization, for example: commercial, political (excluding open forum and debates) or out-of-City groups. Rental facilities are classified into one of four tiers based on a review of the following five characteristics, 1) façade/appearance; 2) location/ease of access; 3) amenities; 4) surrounding neighborhood; and 5) demand; with tier one facilities having the highest overall rankings. Tier designation and availability are subject to change as a result of various capital improvement projects. All rates are hourly. The commercial catering kitchen is available as a separate standalone rental on an hourly basis as well. All rentals shall be for a two hour minimum.

If security is required, the applicant shall pay for this service by a reputable security firm approved by the Parks, Recreation and Community Services Director or pay for service provided by the City of Riverside Police Department. Security requirements are at the discretion of the Parks, Recreation and Community Services Director.
