

Suggested Amendment to CPRC Policies & Procedures
January 25, 2017

VI. OFFICER-INVOLVED DEATH (OID) CASE EVALUATIONS

D. Stage IV – Deliberation and Finding Process

4. ~~If any dissenting rationales are identified and developed, the Commission must determine by consensus, or majority vote if necessary, whether to include such rationales in the Commission's OID Public Report. Dissenting rationales will be considered at the conclusion of all discussion on a possible finding.~~

Any Commissioner may decide to submit a dissenting opinion regarding an OID. The name(s) of the author(s) of the dissenting opinion(s) will be clearly identified and included following the principal text in the final approved OID Public Report. The dissenting opinion(s) shall be included in its / their entirety without edits, unless such edits are approved by the author(s). An italicized statement will be added following the dissenting opinion, indicating, "The dissenting opinion and analysis may not be cited as precedent related to the Commission."

5. After all rationales have been discussed, a Commissioner makes a motion as to whether the actions taken by the Involved Officers leading up to or causing the OID, were within RPD policy. The Commission should strive to complete Stage IV, Deliberation and Finding Process, within 60 days of completing Stage III, Policies and Procedures Process.
6. The OID Public Report will be prepared based upon the input provided by Commissioners during discussions, deliberations, and the Commissioners' rationales and findings.
