Board of Library Trustees

TO: BOARD OF LIBRARY TRUSTEES

DATE: SEPTEMBER 25, 2017

FROM: RIVERSIDE PUBLIC LIBRARY

SUBJECT: CALIFORNIA LIBRARY ASSOCIATION CONFERENCE 2017

ISSUE:

Receive an update on the 2017 California Library Association Conference.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the Board of Library Trustees receive an update on the 2017 California Library Association Conference.

DISCUSSION:

The California Library Association (CLA) will hold its 119th Annual Conference and Exhibition in Riverside, CA, November 2-4, 2017. The CLA Annual Conference and Exhibition is the state's premier professional development event for the library community, its partners, and supporters. This year's conference theme is "New Worlds Emerge."

Trustees are encouraged to attend conference sessions and exhibits as means of becoming more informed of library trends, practices and happenings. Conference attendance also affords attendees the opportunity to become more connected with the library community, including the opportunity to network with Trustees and supporters representing other library jurisdictions.

The registration information is attached and the full conference program are accessible online at <http://conference.cla-net.org/2017/>

FISCAL IMPACT:

There is no fiscal impact associated with this report.
