PUBLIC COMMENT:

Jason Taylor spoke about his new home care business (Surety Home Care) that he and his wife are opening up in Riverside.

COMMISSIONER COMMUNICATIONS: None.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES: Minutes approved from Commission meeting in April. Change requested: Vicki Broach was the presiding officer, not Vicki Guenther.

GUEST SPEAKER: Cassandra Jones spoke to the Commission about the DEANA Foundation, a nonprofit organization whose mission it is to provide support to middle class families who are struggling with dementia. They will be having a fundraiser called Memory Masquerade Gala on June 9th at The Grier Pavilion at 6:00PM. Tickets are available on www.deanafoundation.org

REVIEW BOARD OF ATTENDANCE:

The board voted to approval Vicki Broach's absence.

DISCUSSION ITEMS:

- Senior Fair being held May 17, 2018. Need to locate the Commission banner. Senior Resource Guides will be handed out.
- Commission decided to show up to community meetings about homelessness. They want to hear more about senior homelessness.
- Commission's Facebook page is not being managed. Shari Fleischman volunteered to help with running the page.

- Commission wants to use events as a way to promote outreach for the Commission. All events, Sock Hop, Senior Day, and Senior Fair will be used to promote the Commission.

ITEMS FOR FUTURE CONSIDERATION:

- Each commissioner will visit a senior center in their ward and report back what they find.
- Meals on Wheels event
- Orangecrest senior Center—Gloria Kelman-Moreno will report back

ADJOURNMENT:

- Meeting adjourned at 5:01 PM.
