Brian Norton, Senior Planner, presented the staff report. He indicated that the City received nine letters, two after the Draft EIR review time period had closed. Response to comments will be prepared and will be included in the Final EIR to be adopted by the City Council. It is anticipated that the project will go before the City Council on May 2019 for approval and Certification of the Final EIR. After publication staff received two comment letters one in support from the Greater Riverside Chambers of Commerce. The letter in opposition was from a neighbor with concerns related to traffic, flooding and the yet to be adopted Northside Specific Plan. The letter did not bring up additional concerns that have not already been covered by the Draft EIR and will be addressed under the response to comments in the final EIR going to City Council. Staff requested the addition of new Condition #24: The multi-family component of the development shall install and maintain air filtration systems with efficiencies equal to or exceeding a Minimum Efficiency Reporting Value of (MERV) 16 as defined by the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Engineers. Jim Guthrie, applicant, addressed the Commission and thanked staff for their assistance. Comments from the audience: Juan Muñoz spoke in opposition and suggested reducing the size of the project in order to meet the mitigation measures for the project. Adam Salcedo, Golden State Environmental Justice Lines, stated they submitted letter dated February 23, 2019 which discussed several deficiencies with the Draft EIR. The deficiencies were not limited to land use, planning, transportation air quality and noise. He stands by the comment letter and believes the Draft EIR is flawed and should be reviewed and redistributed. The public hearing was closed. Following discussion the Planning Commission recommended: 1.) That the City Council find: a.
