CALL TO ORDER

The meeting was called to order at 4:00 p.m.

1. PUBLIC COMMENT – this item was moved to the end of the meeting.

Lorna Jenkins – spoke regarding the Explore Riverside Together project on May 4, 2019

Luz Negrón – spoke regarding the renaming of the Museum

PRESENTATIONS

2. Board Chair Report – the Museum was featured in the Press Enterprise with an article on staff activities during closure. The annual City Boards and Commission reception will be held on March 20.

3. Riverside Museum Associates (RMA)

RMA President Robin Whittington reported that Luz Negrón was the recipient of the Carlos Cortez award for Diversity during the State of the City address. The RMA participated in the citrus event at the Arlington Library. The Heritage House featured Victorian Valentine practices during the month of February. Heritage House will feature quilts from the collection during the month of March, with a Quilting Day event on March 16. May 9 will be the RMA Annual Dinner. Board member Monge reported that the Multicultural Council will host four events for the coming year, to become more inclusive of the diverse youth in the region. An open house event on April 27 at the Casa Blanca library branch will take place from 1-2:30 p.m.

4. Harada House Foundation (HHF)

Board member Wilson reported that the Request for Proposals (RFQ) for historic preservation architectural services will be revised to include more funding, meaning that fewer awards will be made (two rather than three). The revision is due to feedback from potential firms.

5. Director's update regarding administration and budget, staffing, collections, facilities, main museum renovation, exhibitions and programs, and community engagement

In addition to the written report, Director Peterson introduced the Museum's new Curator of Natural History, Dr. Douglas Long. The Museum is currently finalizing a contract for the renovation architectural firm. The Museum's Heritage House will be participating in the citrus-themed Zest! collaborative initiative coordinated by the Mission Inn Museum and Foundation. The Collections Registrar position is now open for recruitment. The Museum will give a year-in-review presentation to City Council on March 19 at 2:00 p.m.
