5. UPDATE ON THE PARK MASTERPLAN

Director Cruz presented Zachary Mueting, Lead Consultant from RJM Design Group.

Mr. Mueting gave a very detailed presentation about the Park Master Plan project; he confirmed the Plan will be the guide for future development in the City of Riverside.

Commissioner Whatley asked if neighboring cities' and jurisdictions' facilities, like trails, were considered for the City's statistics and analysis.

Mr. Mueting confirmed that surrounding cities' data is included in the Plan because the goal is not to compete for future development, but rather to join forces and create partnerships.

Commissioner Whatley credited the department with the high satisfaction ratings; she asked for Management's perspective on the plan considering staffing levels.

Director Cruz confirmed the department is already moving forward with the community's input. Fees have been reduced in the afterschool program, advisory boards are developing more senior programming at all community centers, and an additional pool will be installed with a heating system. He confirmed the department will return annually with updates the department has implemented from the Park Master Plan.

After discussion, a motion was made to accept the report for file.

Motion: Whatley
Second: Cardullo
Ayes: All

7. 2019 SUMMER HIGHLIGHTS FROM PARKS, RECREATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICES DEPARTMENT
