COMMUNITY POLICE REVIEW COMMISSION

CPRC applicants must undergo a limited background check by the Police Department prior to serving on the Commission due to the sensitivity and confidentiality of the materials you will review that have certain legal restrictions. The background check consists of completion of a Background Personal Information form, live scan fingerprint process through the FBI and Department of Justice, a local police records check, a records check of the National Crime Information Center (NCIC), and a DMV records check that includes vehicles registered to the applicant. The DMV records check relates to City liability issues since Commissioners occasionally give their personal vehicles to public outreach events. Under existing California law, a member of a board or commission may not make, participate in making, or attempt to influence a governmental decision if it is reasonably foreseeable that the decision could have a material financial effect on that member, the member's immediate family, or any of his or her financial interests. There is also a special category of conflicts of interest which strictly forbids members and/or their employers from having financial interests in city contracts. Careful consideration should be given to this issue and applicants are encouraged to contact the City Clerk's Office if they have any questions.

Question applies to Community Police Review Commission

CPRC applicants must undergo a limited background check by the Police Department prior to serving on the Commission due to the sensitivity and confidentiality of the materials you will review that have certain legal restrictions. The background check consists of completion of a Background Personal Information form, live scan fingerprint process through the FBI and Department of Justice, a local police records check, a records check of the National Crime Information Center (NCIC), and a DMV records check that includes vehicles registered to the applicant. The DMV records check relates to City liability issues since Commissioners occasionally give their personal vehicles to public outreach events. The background check takes approximately two weeks to complete.

Why you want to serve on a City Board or Commission:

I believe that it is important to take an active role in life and to strive to improve the overall condition of life. As a board member of the Public Utilities, it would give me the opportunity to serve the community and residents of the City of Riverside.

Experience or special knowledge pertaining to area(s) of interest:

Living in the greenbelt of Riverside in the beautiful orange groves just off of Van Buren, the need of a clean, continuous flow of water is very apparent in every day life. As the City of Riverside continues to grow, the need for abundant electrical power is also required to help all those in the City of Riverside and surrounding areas to flourish.

I have a desire to help Riverside provide clean and reliable electric power for generations to come.

Educational background:

AA, General Education, Santa Ana City College

Occupational experience:

Retired police officer.

Professional or technical organization memberships:

none

Civic or community experience, memberships, or previous public service appointments:

None

For many years, I have desired to take an active role in my community, but was unable to due to rearing children. My children are older now and I have the time to donate to my community.

Under existing California law, a member of a board or commission may not make, participate in making, or attempt to influence a governmental decision if it is reasonably foreseeable that the decision could have a material financial effect on that member, the member's immediate family, or any of his or her financial interests. There is also a special category of conflicts of interest which strictly forbids members and/or their employers from having financial interests in city contracts. Careful consideration should be given to this issue and applicants are encouraged to contact the City Clerk's Office if they have any questions.

COMMUNITY POLICE REVIEW COMMISSION

CPRC applicants must undergo a limited background check by the Police Department prior to serving on the Commission due to the sensitivity and confidentiality of the materials you will review that have certain legal restrictions. The background check consists of completion of a Background Personal Information form, live scan fingerprint process through the FBI and Department of Justice, a local police records check, a records check of the National Crime Information Center (NCIC), and a DMV records check that includes vehicles registered to the applicant. The DMV records check relates to City liability issues since Commissioners occasionally give their personal vehicles to public outreach events. The background check takes approximately two weeks to complete.
