

Certified Local Government Program -- 2019-2020 Annual Report

(Reporting period is from October 1, 2019 through September 30, 2020)

INSTRUCTIONS: This is a Word form with expanding text fields and check boxes. It will probably open as Read-Only. Save it to your computer before you begin entering data. This form can be saved and reopened.

Because this is a WORD form, it will behave generally like a regular Word document except that the font, size, and color are set by the text field.

- Start typing where indicated to provide the requested information.
- Click on the check box to mark either yes or no.
- To enter more than one item in a particular text box, just insert an extra line (Enter) between the items.

Save completed form and email as an attachment to Lucinda.Woodward@parks.ca.gov. You can also convert it to a PDF and send as an email attachment. Use the Acrobat tab in WORD and select Create and Attach to Email. You can then attach the required documents to that email. If the attachments are too large (greater than 10mb total), you will need to send them in a second or third email.

(Reporting period is from October 1, 2019 through September 30, 2020)

D. Review Responsibilities

1. Who takes responsibility for design review or Certificates of Appropriateness?

☐ All projects subject to design review go the commission.

☒ Some projects are reviewed at the staff level without commission review. What is the threshold between staff-only review and full-commission review? Certificate of Appropriateness is the responsibility of staff for minor projects and the Cultural Heritage Board (CHB) for major projects. Administrative authority on Certificate of Appropriateness are provided in Section 20.25.030 of Title 20 (Cultural Resources). Staff may refer minor COA to CHB if deemed necessary. Minor project COAs include: in-kind replacement of materials, re-roofing, painting, walls and fences, small additions with limited or no public visibility, restoration of integrity for prior inappropriate alterations, paving, landscaping, and signs. Staff decisions are appealable to the CHB. Appeals of CHB decisions are considered by the City's Land Use, Sustainability, and Resilience Committee and then the City Council.

2. California Environmental Quality Act

- What is the role of the staff and commission in providing input to CEQA documents prepared for or by the local government? When CEQA documents are prepared for a General Plan, Specific Plan, or other Planning documents, initiated by the City, CHB Staff reviews and provides comments on the Cultural Resources Report, the Cultural Resources and Tribal Cultural Resources section of the Initial Study, and proposed mitigation. Staff provides a recommendation to Planning Commission for adoption by City Council.

What is the role of the staff and commission in reviewing CEQA documents for projects that are proposed within the jurisdiction of the local government? A staff level Development Review Committee (DRC) reviews development applications including any pre-applications. CHB Staff is part of the DRC and provides input for any historic preservation and archaeological related items. Projects subject to CEQA review are handled as follows:

- 1) CHB Staff reviews all Cultural Resources reports, Initial Studies (IS); and proposed mitigation measures.
- 2) CHB Staff assists the project planner with all Tribal Consultation under AB-52 and SB 18.
- 3) Planning Staff provides a recommendation to the Planning Commission for projects that do not require CHB consideration.
- 4) CHB Staff provides a recommendation to CHB on projects where the CHB is the approving body, and CHB takes final action to adopt the ND or MND.
- 3) CHB reviews the CEQA documents and provides a recommendation to the Planning Commission or City Council for

Certified Local Government Program -- 2019-2020 Annual Report

(Reporting period is from October 1, 2019 through September 30, 2020)

projects where the CHB is not the approving body.

4) City Council certifies all Environmental Impact Reports (EIRs).

3. Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act

- What is the role of the staff and commission in providing input to Section 106 documents prepared for or by; the local government?
Section 106 reviews for City Projects, such as HUD-funded projects, are completed in-house in accordance with the City's Programmatic Agreement, which has been in effect since July 2002. For all other Section 106 projects, which are funded through the City, documents are prepared in-house or by qualified consultants to forward to SHPO for concurrence.
- What is the role of the staff and commission in reviewing Section 106 documents for projects that are proposed within the jurisdiction of the local government? City staff responds to all requests for comment under Section 106 and provides information on properties listed or found eligible for listing in the National Register

II. Establish an Adequate and Qualified Historic Preservation Review Commission by State or Local Legislation.

IN ADDITION TO THE MINIMUM CLG REQUIREMENTS, OHP IS INTERESTED IN A SUMMARY OF LOCAL PRESERVATION PROGRAMS

- A. What are your most critical preservation planning issues? The program currently has one full-time preservation planner with some administrative support which has allowed the City to assess the priorities of the program. The City is identifying ways to streamline processes to ensure that the high level of customer service and a strong historic preservation program continues.
- B. What is the single accomplishment of your local government this year that has done the most to further preservation in your community? Within this reporting cycle, the City's was awarded a 2019 Governor's Award for the Doors Open program. The award recognizes the collaborative endeavor by the Doors Open Riverside partners, the generosity of the building participants, and the diligent efforts by the Mission Inn Museum docents.
- C. What recognition are you providing for successful preservation projects or programs? Every 2 years, the Cultural Heritage Board reports to the City Council about accomplishments the have occurred within the last 18-month period. During this report successful historic preservation projects are highlighted and recognized.
- D. What are your local historic preservation goals for 2020-2021? 1) Complete the African American Civil Rights Context Statement; 2) Continue to work with the City GIS team to integrate the Historic Resources Database into the Citywide GIS update; 3) Finalize revisions to Title 20 (Cultural Resources) and submit to OHP for review; and 4) Apply for a CLG grant to complete an update to the Citywide Historic District Design Guidelines.
- E. So that we may better serve you in the future, are there specific areas and/or issues with which you could use technical assistance from OHP? OHP continues to be responsive to technical question as they arise.
- F. In what subject areas would you like to see training provided by the OHP? How you like would to see the training delivered (workshops, online, technical assistance bulletins, etc.)?
