BACKGROUND:

On June 8, 2021, the City conducted a General Municipal Election for Wards 2,4, and 6. As a result of the election, on July 13, 2021, the newly elected Council member representing Ward 2 and Council members representing Wards 4 and 6 commenced a new term of office.

Each Standing Committee shall be comprised of three members. Each Council member shall serve as Chair, Vice-Chair, and Member of three Committees, respectively. The MNSC shall include the Mayor, who shall serve as Chair, and the Inclusiveness, Community Engagement, and Governmental Processes Committee members.

The resolution further provides that to the greatest extent possible, preferences of senior Councilmembers shall be honored. The City Clerk requested each elected official forward their assignment preferences for the MNSC consideration.

The MNSC last referred recommendations to the City Council for the Standing Committee and Regional Organization assignments on January 19, 2021, following the previous election for Mayor.
