F. County has five detention centers throughout the County, one being Robert Presley Detention Center, located at 4000 Orange Street, Riverside, California 92501 (“RPDC”). Many individuals who are arrested in areas outside of the City are taken to RPDC, and if they lack transportation back to their area of residence, they are released directly onto City streets.

G. On May 25, 2021, the County approved opting-in to the court-ordered program, known as Laura’s Law, which provides community-based, assisted outpatient treatment to a small population of individuals who meet strict legal criteria and who – as a result of their mental illness – are unable to voluntarily access community mental health services (“Laura’s Law Program”). County will begin implementing the Laura’s Law Program in November 2021.

H. On March 13, 2018, the City adopted a series of homeless service initiatives, which set forth the City’s policies, goals, and objectives in addressing homeless issues through the strategic alignment of municipal and regional resources, with an emphasis on providing homeless individuals with housing first and then wrap-around services (“Housing First Strategy”).

I. On April 2, 2019, the City approved the Public Safety and Engagement Team Program (“PSET”), a City multi-departmental engagement team whose purpose is to address the challenges brought forth by homelessness, maintaining order in the public realm while providing those individuals experiencing homelessness a path to exit the condition.

J. In addition to PSET, the Riverside Police Department (“RPD”) has also created a Community Behavioral Assessment Team (“CBAT”), to consist of two specially-trained RPD officers and two County clinical therapists who respond to service calls involving mental health issues.

K. On June 22, 2021, the City approved the creation of twenty (20) Park and Neighborhood Specialists (“PANS”) to promote safety and welfare in City parks, trails, neighborhoods, and public spaces. PANS will be working directly with PSET.

L.
