DISCUSSION

4. PARKS, RECREATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICES DEPARTMENT PARK ADVISORY GROUP POLICY

Director Cruz shared that Department should have a policy in place.

Commissioner Cardullo inquired if there is a staff person that oversees the groups.

Director Cruz mentioned that it depends on the park, but each will have a Recreation Services Coordinator as a liaison.

Commissioner Cardullo also inquired if groups can establish a nonprofit on their own.

Director Cruz confirmed that some of the groups will raise funds and therefore becoming a nonprofit would be beneficial; and confirmed that groups will become nonprofit on their own and not under the City's umbrella.

Commissioner Elliot recommend Department add language to policy to enforce the nonprofit status if fundraising will be conducted by group.

Chair Cardullo inquired if the advisory groups will have their own volunteers.

Director Cruz confirmed that all volunteers will be fingerprinted by the City for all liability purposes.

After discussion, a motion was made to accept the report for file and to present to the Community Services and Youth Committee.

Motion: Humphreys
