

WORKPLAN OBJECTIVES

STATUS UPDATES/WORK COMPLETED

1	Ensure all Wards are represented at Community Police Review Commission meetings by establishing a commissioner attendance of 80%.	The goal is to establish an 80% commissioner attendance rate at CPRC meetings to ensure all wards are adequately represented. The CPRC successfully maintained an average attendance rate of 88% for Q1 of 2026.
2	Achieve a 90% review rate of case files to ensure effective review of citizen complaints prior to commission meetings.	The objective was to achieve a 90% review rate of case files to facilitate effective discussion of citizen complaints before commission meetings. As of April 2026, the CPRC has reviewed and discussed six closed session cases, achieving a 100% review rate and completing over 178 hours of reviewing cases.
3	Achieve a 100% review rate of case files and rationale sheets submission of Officer Involved Death cases.	The goal is to achieve a 100% review rate of all case files and accompanying rationale sheets for officer involved death (OID) cases. One 2025 OID case is currently on hold pending the release of all evidence, including body-worn camera footage, from protected custody. Additionally, two OID cases are pending initiation.
4	Engage with the community by completing ward specific Outreach efforts quarterly and Citywide Outreach efforts no less than twice a year.	The goal is for commissioners to compete ward specific outreach efforts quarterly and City-wide outreach efforts at least twice annually. Only one commissioner attended a community engagement event for Q1 of 2026.
5	Report commission performance quarterly and ensure all commissions annually compete a Ride-A-Long.	The goal is for commissioners to report on their performance and to ensure that each commissioner completes at least one ride-along annually. As of April 2026, no commissioners have completed a ride-along during the first quarter of 2026.
