BACKGROUND/DISCUSSION

On June 7, 2024, the Community & Economic Development Department (CEDD), submitted an application to the State Office of Historic Preservation (OHP) during the 2023-2023 CLG grant cycle application period for $40,000 to prepare a Women of Riverside Historic Context Statement. On September 30, 2024, the City received notice that OHP had accepted the application and awarded a $40,000 grant.

The development of a Women of Riverside Historic Context Statement will benefit the community because it ensures that the richer and more complete history of marginalized groups, their role in advocating and agitating for civil rights, and the role they played in the development and advancement of the City. Further, the context will provide a framework for identifying and designating properties that are historically significant for their association with Women's history in Riverside.

The awarded $40,000 in grant funds was used to hire Historic Resources Group, Inc (HRG) to prepare the historic context statement, with the assistance of City staff, a University of California Riverside (UCR) Ph.D. Student, and UCR Public History Faculty and students.

On September 9, 2025, the project team held a community meeting with several members of the public in attendance. The intent of the meeting was to gain insight and direction in areas to focus on during the research process. Community feedback included sites, organizations, and persons significant to Women's history in Riverside.

On December 16, 2025, a partial first draft was submitted to City Staff. The final first draft, which will include the final chapter of 1960-1990, is anticipated to be submitted in January 2026. The themes and topics of the Historic Context Statement were developed with guidance from other existing Women's Historic Context Statements, including the Los Angeles Citywide Women's Rights in Los Angeles (2018) by Historic Resources Group; The Women's Suffrage Movement in Washington, DC: 1848-1973 (March 2024) by Quinn Evans; Oregon Women's Labor History: A Historic Context Statement (2024) by Northwest Vernacular, Inc. and SJM Cultural Resources; Historic Context for Suffrage and Women's Rights in Nevada (November 2021) by Alicia Barber and ZoAnn Campana; and Women's History in Olympia: First Settlement, 1846 to 1948 (July 1998) by Shanna Stevenson.
