COMMUNICATIONS

7. Director's Update regarding the main museum renovation, historic houses, the 100th anniversary, collections, exhibitions and programs, budget, staffing, advisory teams, volunteer and support opportunities, marketing, and communications.

In addition to the published report, Director Peterson announced the Museum has five remaining programs in the 100-event program series for the 100th anniversary. The main museum renovation project will not go to public bid, but only to the three contractors who have been selected through a pre-qualification process. When the bid is released, the three contractors will have approximately 45 days to submit their bid. The lowest bid will be presented to City Council for approval. The December 5th Arts Walk event has been cancelled. Some natural history collections in the main museum are in the process of being relocated offsite. Staff are in the 2nd round of interviews for the Exhibition Designer position. Staff are in the process of creating the spring 2025 exhibition for Heritage House. There are five potential members for the Community Advisory Team that will meet regarding the re-opening exhibition about immigration; a press release will be issued once members are finalized. Museum Curator Brenda Focht will be retiring in December and will return as a volunteer in 2025. The Galleria mall digital ad will promote the Roaring Riverside exhibition at Heritage House through December. The Museum is working diligently to use available grant funds (Save America's Treasure grant and Community Development Block Grant) for Harada House and its Interpretive Center. Both will expire soon; project delays have affected the ability to spend funding.
