Billing Guidelines

In a continuing effort to clearly communicate the City's expectations to our retained counsel to ensure we are fiscally responsible and good stewards of the taxpayers' funds, and to build community trust below are guidelines that are to be followed for any work completed on our behalf. Any exception or deviation of these guidelines must have prior written approval from the City, or the billing item will be disallowed.

- A detailed description of all time billed must be broken out by each task with a notation of the time devoted to such task. No block billing will be accepted.
- No billing for legal research that is within the purported expertise of the lawyer hired will be accepted. Any time spent educating junior lawyers in the substantive law or researching matters considered to be common knowledge among reasonably experienced counsel in a jurisdiction should not be billed.
- No billing for internal conferences between lawyers of the same firm will be accepted, unless authorized by the City.
- No excessive or repeated review of file, pleadings, depositions, medical records etc., will be accepted.
- No more than one lawyer to make appearances at meetings, court, depositions, etc. Only the primary assigned lawyer may appear before the Court. Prior written approval must be obtained before any other lawyer(s) appear. Any change in the primary assigned lawyer requires the prior written approval of the City. The City retains the discretion to remove any attorney assigned to the matter.
- Whenever practicable, Court Call, Zoom, or other virtual platform should be utilized for routine court appearances.
- Legal research in excess of four hours during the pendency of the case must have prior City approval.
- The City of Riverside considers the following costs part of outside counsel's overhead and will not accept charges for the following items: computer; secretarial; word processing; messenger services provided by a firm employee; email; incoming facsimiles; rent; conference rooms; lighting; air conditioning; supplies; library staff; library use and materials; clerks; proofreaders; organizing, reorganizing and maintaining files; indexing and tabbing materials; creating and organizing files; corresponding with vendors; processing vendors bills; organizing files for storage; collating; copying documents; ordering and instructing vendors; general clerical functions; and overtime. Exception must have prior City approval.
- The City expects counsel to limit and/or avoid unnecessary travel through teleconferencing or use of virtual platforms. Travel must have prior written approval from the City.
- Outside counsel are not authorized to retain any outside vendors/consultants without City approval. The budget for any outside vendor/consultant shall not exceed Fifty Thousand dollars ($50,000) without City Council approval in accordance with the Procurement Resolution and the City Attorney's authority under Section 205.
- All billing will be done in accordance with the highest ethics of the legal profession (e.g. prohibited billing practices - double-billing, value billing, expense reimbursement without supporting documentation, etc.)
- Invoices shall be submitted monthly to CAOinvoices@riversideca.gov
