BACKGROUND

PREVIOUS COMMITTEE/COUNCIL MEETINGS

July 2022 – Inclusiveness, Community Engagement and Governmental Processes Committee (ICGC) received and discussed an update to the City Council Rules of Procedure and Order of Business related to the number and role of Boards and Commissions. It was requested that the item be continued for further discussion.

Septembers 2022 – ICGC once again discussed the number and role of Boards and Commissions. Staff was directed to review the topic outside of the City Council Rules of Procedure and Order of Business and bring to a later discussion.

June 2023 – As a preliminary exploration of structural changes, the Airport Commission received a proposal to merge with the Transportation Board. The Airport Commission did not support the merge, citing distinct responsibilities and technical focus.

March 2024 – The Budget Engagement Commission received a proposal to reduce their membership from 18 to 11. Following discussion, the Commission voted to recommend amending the RMC to move forward with the reduction in membership.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION PROVIDED

1. What constitutes a quorum and does the City have the authority to change it?
 - a. Quorum requirements are established by the Ralph M. Brown Act, (e.g. set by the State and cannot be changed by the City)
 - b. Quorum is 50% + 1 of the total seats, not filled seats or members present, on the Board or Commission.
2. The Charter states that the Mayor shall appoint members to Boards and Commission seats if the seat is vacant longer than 30 days.
 - a. There must be representation from each Ward and some Wards are difficult to recruit from
 - b. Should there be consideration of filling a seat with a citywide representative if a ward representative cannot be identified
3. Agenda setting
 - a. Many Departments go through a process to review the agendas with the Board or Commission Chair prior to meetings
 - b. Items on the agenda need to be within the purview of the Board or Commission
 - c. The annual Board Work Plan is intended to help identify items the Board or Commission would like to consider each year and allow staff the time to prepare the reports
