SUBJECT: RIVERSIDE READS PROGRAM 2024

ISSUE:

Receive an informational report on the 2024 Riverside Reads program at the Riverside Public Library.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

That the Board of Library Trustees receive an informational update on the 2024 Riverside Reads program at the Riverside Public Library.

BACKGROUND:

The Riverside Reads program at the Riverside Public Library is an annual program that provides an opportunity for the community to have a shared reading experience and to participate in engaging discussions. The book title is selected based on topics that may be of social or historical significance to the community. In addition to print and digital copies that can be checked out from the library, free copies of the book are also available at all library locations.

DISCUSSION:

The book selected for Riverside Reads 2024 is There There by Tommy Orange, an award-winning novel that follows twelve characters from Native communities as they travel to the Big Oakland Powwow. "A contemporary classic, this astonishing literary debut places Native American voices front and center" (National Public Radio). Free copies of the book will be available at all eight library locations starting mid-February, while supplies last.

Programming will celebrate the vibrancy of local indigenous cultures by highlighting their history, artwork, and literature. Events will begin in March with a kick-off panel discussion at the Main Library featuring a Professor of American Indian Affairs from UC Riverside and representatives from Sherman Indian High School and the Museum of Riverside. There will also be a screening of the documentary film These are Not "Stories": American Indian Boarding Schools in Southern California.

Scheduled throughout March and April will be community book discussions, an open mic teen showcase featuring students from Sherman Indian High School sharing their art and songs, and a local author showcase in collaboration with Inlandia.

The 2024 Riverside Reads program will be supported by funds from the Riverside Public Library Foundation. Prior to this meeting, a staff report was submitted for the Board of Library Trustees to accept and recommend that the City Council approve the gift fund donations from December 2023 in the amount of $3,000 from Riverside Public Library Foundation for the Riverside Reads 2024 program. In the past, the California State Library has provided opportunities to fund the program through their Book to Action grant; however, the grant opportunity was not made available this year.
